General information

In this dossier, you will find information about the Museu Nacional d'Art de Catalunya (MNAC) located in Parc de Montjuïc. The material contained in this guide is created so that you can plan your visit to the Museum ahead of time and get your bearings. We recommend reviewing the guide before visiting the Museum.

The MNAC has an important library with more than 150,000 volumes, a bibliographic and documentary heritage that the Museum makes available to all users. The library can be accessed through the rear part of the Museum.

Check the website to see the MNAC's opening hours and ticket prices.

The Museum is located in the Palau Nacional.

The Palau was built in 1929 for the International Exposition.

In 1934 the museum opened its doors as the Museu d'Art de Catalunya, with the collection of medieval art.

In 1995, now known as the Museu Nacional d'Art de Catalunya, the Romanesque art halls were officially opened.

In 2004 the Museum added the modern art collection.
